The sound collector

A stranger ~~came~~ <sup>did</sup> this morning, ~~does~~
Dressed in blue ~~and~~ grey,
He chucked every sound into a bag,
And carried them away. ✓

The roaring of the lion,
The hissing of the snake
The ~~in~~ ~~smoking~~ ~~of~~ the laughing of the children,
What noise they make. ✓

The stamping of the elephant,
The squawking of the parrot,
The tapping of the hammer,
The bunnies eating carrots. ✓

The eating of the giraffe,
The splashing of the seals,
The playing of the monkey,
The crashing of the trees,
The banana it peels. ✓ poem.

The sound collector at school

A stranger called this evening
Dressed in yellow and blue
Chucked every sound into a bag
And suddenly away he flew ✓

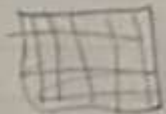

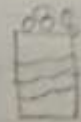

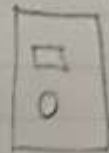

The scratching of the pencil
The dinging of the bells
The crying of the children
When they fell ✓

The shouting of the people
The chopping of the cakes
The clatter of the trays fab! The banging sound it makes ✓

The racket of the band
The slamming of the door
The bubbling of the water
The thudding of the floor ✓

A stranger called this evening
He didn't <sup>have</sup> give his name
Left us only silence
Life will never be the same

✓ A fantastic poem - great rhyming!

Year 4 looked at an Aboriginal story called "The Rainbow Serpent" and created an acrostic poem from it. This is by Heidi.

Rainbow Serpent Goolia Lives in Australia.

In the Sand by the sea shore
Now enraged
But he is looking for his two bribes
One day
Will he find them?

Serpent
E ven
R osier than maroon
p udd skid
E veryone
N ever
T O be seen again.

Heidi Brown

Year 4 - these poems are by Evie and Megan.

Rainbow Serpent (Goonies)
Australia is where it lives
Indeterminately
Not seen for hundreds of years
Because
Of the time
When he Squirmed into the Sea

Snakily
Eroding the rocks while Raging and
Plotting a plan,
Ebony Creative Serpent
Not to be disturbed from
The depths of the clear Ocean

Evie Thomas

Ripping in the world
Australia was dangerous
In the winds of thunder
Numerous people got angry
But not the serpent
Oh no the boys went here!!
When the people heard that the boys were gone they roared
Suddenly the people charged
Even the serpent was scared this time
Run get the serpent! they shouted
People didn't realize how horrible this was going to be Eventually the people cut the serpent's stomach open
Not so late they were transformed into birds
Temptingly the serpent turned them into all sorts of animals

by Megan Clark

Year 4 also sewed a small cushion for a present for their mums.
